HOPE FOR THE REUNION

Speaker's View in Address at Meeting Representing North and South Branches.

Co-Operative Epworth Institute in Session at Foundry M. E. Church. Program of Exercises.

An important step toward the ultimate union of the Methodist Episcopa Church and the Methodist Episcopa South was taken last night by the meeting of the first Co-operative Epworth League Institute of the Ep worth League Union of Washington and vicinity and the Washington Dis trict Epworth League, in Foundry M E. Church, 16th and Church street,

Dr. A. C. Christie, president of the Washington District Epworth League opened the three-day conference last ight with an address on "Union of and tried to live up to. It is a good North and South in Methodism," in motto. Yes, indeed, it is a very good which he related the history of the motto, when it is rightly used. You split in the church, when a part with-drew to organize as the "South." Dr. trying and trying over and over again Christie spoke optimistically of future thrive on the trees! But he couldn't quite make up his mind to kill or really hurt Bully and Mrs. Bully, so he thought that if he took their eggs and destroyed their nest there couldn't be any baby Sparrows to grow up and make more trouble, and then perhaps Bully and his wife would go away from the Old Orchard.

But Farmer Brown's boy didn't know Bully. No, indeed! He didn't know how persistent Bully can be. The next day he visited the Old Orchard to see if Bully had left. What do you think he found? Why, he found that Bully and his wife had built in the very same hole that the old one had been in! He tore this to pieces only to find another one the next day. And so it was on the following day and the day after that. Farmer Brown's boy just had to admire the spunk and persistence of Bully and Mrs. Bully.

"You certainly deserve to be left alone," said he, "but I can't do it. You are a nuisance, and so you have got to go if I have to come down here and
